

Mart Graef

Dr Mart Graef is a strategic program manager in the Government and Industry Relations Group at NXP Semiconductors. He is involved in various technology partnerships, mostly within the framework of European cooperative projects. He is a member of the MEDEA+ Steering Group for Technologies, and the ENIAC Strategic Research Agenda Working Group. He is also a member of the International Roadmap Committee, which guides the creation of the International Technology Roadmap for Semiconductors (ITRS).